1. Please describe this person's greatest strengths as a Instructional Assistant.
Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- He always helped students kindly and took time to explain how things work and why they work for students to get a better understanding. He was passionate when supporting students and teaching. He explained things very clearly and made sure no one was staying behind. He always has a happy vibe that made it more comfortable to talk with and ask for help.
- He was always willing to help and was very helpful when I needed to find and fix problems related to the circuits and their diagrams. He was also good at explaining and clarifying doubts about the topics in an easy to understand way.
- Jay is very conversational and does a great job animating others. He is very knowledgeable and has great character.
- Jay's greatest strength is teaching the material. He is wonderful at answering questions and makes sure that you truly understand the material to help you to the best of your ability.
- Present and helpful most of the time.
- The instructional assistant provides excellent advice and insight in addition to being skilled at problem solving.
