1. Please describe this person's greatest strengths as a Instructional Assistant.
Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- Energetic and creative, always ready to help.
- Extremely easy to talk to and easy to get along with. Very educational and knowledgeable. Can connect with Jae beyond the classroom.
- goated
- Good helper
- He is always willing to speak as much as possible to give most information. He speaks clearly.
- He is patient and responsible
- He is very good at explaining things, has a great understanding of the concepts that we needed to use in the class, and is helpful in general.
- He was very knowledgeable; I fully trusted him to solve whatever issue I had with my work. He was also very approachable.
- His quick thinking, certainty, confidence, and reliability is what made him an extremely talented instructional assistant.
- Jay excels in ECE 5, he essentially knows the course entirely well. He often knows the solution to all questions is always available when troubleshooting. He is basically a "pro" and extremely helpful and intelligent engineer.
- Jay is a fun and smart individual that I can rely on for help.
- Jay is always very knowledgeable and helpful! he is constantly assisting students with both hardware and software problems and does so in a very professional and freindly manner. He teaches instead of just solving problems for students and is a great TA!
- Jay was always present, enthusiastic, and took the lots of time to help you.

- Jay's greatest strength as an IA was his communication skills and the welcoming nature he brought to this course. He was very intellectual in every course material, giving insight into what the problem was and how to fix it. He always lets me know what I did wrong, explains what the errors could lead up to, and encourages me to keep learning.
- Patient
- Super motivated to help with any questions no matter the subject.
- This person is extremely passionate about teaching. You can tell that he understands all the material and that he genuinely wants to help students learn more. This person is also very approachable.
- Very intelligent when it comes to ECE. He was able to solve many issues that I had with my programs, each time within 5-10 minutes.
- Very knowledgeable, probably the most knowledgeable assistant for the class. Very helpful guide and mentor.
- Very technical and intelligent
- Very, very passionate about helping a student and always helped students understand where they were going wrong.

2. Please describe this person's greatest weaknesses as a Instructional Assistant.

Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- Due to the strengths listed above, he was always busy interacting with other students; him being a wanted man all over the classroom would be his weakness.
- goated
- Honestly nothing.
- I can't think of a weakness for this instructional assistant.
- I do not see any weakness in Jay, he is very straightforward and assertive when communicating my point of view with him.
- I experienced no weaknesses of him as an instructional assistant.
- No weakness
- No weaknesses, except dancing skills could be improved.
- Sometimes Jay could go above my level of comprehension, but at least they were always mentally engaging.

3. Please detail other characteristics of the Instructional Assistant (if applicable).
Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- Funny, kind, efficient.
- goated
- He can be funny sometimes
- He went on further than just being an IA with students; he became more like an older friend students could look up to and even seek help outside of the summer session.
- Very funny guy.
- Was very approachable, charismatic, and always stucked with a student till the problem/question was solved.

4. I would recommend this Instructional Assistant to other students.
