1. Please describe this person's greatest strengths as a Instructional Assistant.
Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- Approachable, very willing and open to help others.
- Friendly and welcoming. Creates a desirable learning environment.
- Friendly, informative, hardworking, knowledgeable, and down to earth.
- Great at explaining concepts and helping students
- He is a super nice person who always went out of your way to help you understand. If he didn't know how to answer he would work on it on his own and then always come back to tell you how to do it. I just felt like he went out of his way to help you learn.
- He is excellent at explaining material.
- He is very efficient at explaining tougher concepts and very straight to the point on a concepts importance. Very skilled in the material of 109.
- He was the most helpful TAs and I found his office hours to be very helpful and the way he explains things, make time for students and always check back if we understood something or not and go back to derived to make idea hold was nothing short of amazing work. He also helps with proof things and check back with students. He is also very approachable, nice, funny and great resource of help during this class..
- Jay was great, he was able to answer all of my questions and helped me understand the errors of my approach.
- Patient and thorough
- Willing to help students even out of office hours or tutoring sessions. Good at explaining thoroughly.

2. Please describe this person's greatest weaknesses as a Instructional Assistant.
Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- He sometimes takes too long and contradicts himself in explaining things but he eventually gets to the correct solution/approach.
- No weaknesses.
- none just wish he had more office hours
- Speaks a little too fast sometimes which makes it a little difficult to understand at times.

3. Please detail other characteristics of the Instructional Assistant (if applicable).
Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- Always available.
- Helpful, willing to help, knowledgeable
- I would say he was very humble and would show that even he can make mistake and his own struggle with the course but still figure out the right thing to do which help more than I can describe in words but I general it was very nice getting help and attending his office hours and he will fix any mistake if he did and notify us.
- Not applicable.
- Very nice and very honest.

4. I would recommend this Instructional Assistant to other students.

5. Do you have any other comments to add to your evaluation?
Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- He's a great TA for a class with difficult concepts.
- I had an amazing experience during every OH's that I went to.
- none, I wish the TAs would work more together and organize to make more smooth experience.
